EPISODE 1: Charlie and Blue Go to a Gurdwara

Key Stage 1 Cross-Curricular Topic: Buildings

Introduction

A Gurdwara is a Sikh place of worship. Any place containing the Guru Granth Sahib (the Sikh holy book) and where it is treated with respect can be termed a Gurdwara. There are three main events that take place here:

Kirtan – the singing of hymns from the Guru Granth Sahib.
Katha – reading from the Guru Granth Sahib with explanations.
Offering meals to all visitors of all beliefs in the community kitchen called a Langar. The food is always vegetarian because meat is not allowed in a Gurdwara, and it also means that people of all faiths can share the meal.

Gurdwaras also provide other services to the local community such as teaching children Gurmukhi (the language of the Guru Granth Sahib), music clubs, a library of Sikh literature and other charitable events.

When entering a Gurdwara, shoes should be removed and heads covered. Everyone sits on the floor facing the Guru Granth Sahib to show that everyone is equal. The idea that all people should be treated equally is an important part of Sikhism. People should also avoid pointing their feet at the holy book out of respect.

Charlie and Blue Go to a Gurdwara (5:03)

Theme: Ethics and Religion
Topic: Religious Traditions/Holy Buildings

Charlie and her favourite soft toy (and best friend) Blue go to a Gurdwara where they meet Pawandeep to find out how Sikhs show that everyone should be treated equally.
Lesson Plan

Starter

Begin by asking the children ....

Can you think of ways that you help others?

Take a few answers and then show a sharing resource from the classroom such as a Lego box.

Ask what they would do if they were playing with the Lego and then another child came over and wanted to play too.

Guide children to the idea of sharing and working together.

How do they feel if others don’t share?

The key question ‘Why is it so important to share everything equally?’

Write down key ideas from the children to come back to later.

Share the learning objectives

- To use the right names for things that are special to Sikhs in a Gurdwara.
- To talk about why it is important to Sikhs to treat people equally.
- To talk about how we treat everyone equally in our class.

Display and give the meaning of the key words

- Sikh: Learner, disciple. A person who believes in the ten Gurus (the name given to the Sikh leaders) and the Guru Granth Sahib.
- Gurdwara: A Sikh place of worship. The word means the ‘doorway to the Guru’.
- Nishan Sahib: The Sikh flag, which flies outside all Gurdwaras.
- Guru Granth Sahib: The Sikh holy book, made up of writings collected by Guru Arjan and given its final form by Guru Gobind Singh.
- Karah parshad: Blessed food given out at a Gurdwara.
- Langar: Guru’s kitchen. The name given to the dining hall in a Gurdwara and the food served in it.
- Equality: When everyone is allowed to join in, no matter who they are.

By the end of the lesson:

All children can: recall that a Gurdwara is a place where followers of the Sikh faith worship and talk about treating people equally.

Most children can: use the right names for things that are special to Sikhs in a Gurdwara, talk about why it is important to Sikhs to treat people equally and talk about how we treat everyone equally in our class.

Some children can: explain how Blue learned about sharing in the Gurdwara, and give an example of how Sikhs promote equal treatment of all people. They can talk about what might happen if people are not treated equally.

Extension - Suggested Further Activities

- The display of children’s pictures and flags could be enhanced with linking key words about sharing and photos of where sharing can take place in the classroom, e.g., the home corner, play boxes, snack time, on the carpet sharing ideas, on tables sharing resources.

- Pupils could design a meal that would be appropriate for everyone to eat or make a class rule for sharing which they can put into practice.

- Visit a Gurdwara! There’s a good directory here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_gurdwaras_in_the_United_Kingdom

- If there is a Gurdwara near your school, ask if a member of the congregation would like to come into the school to answer some questions from the children.

- Ensure that the children already have some questions prepared and you have a note of them. You might also like to nominate one or two of your more confident children to ask the first questions and get the ball rolling.

- If you have any artefacts – you could develop a lesson about the 5 Ks and link, for example, to BBC Sikhism Class Clips: http://www.bbc.co.uk/education/topics/z7gjimp3/resources/1.
